FROM LBSRA PRESIDENT

We have sent out emails regarding Re-Cert clinic. Take advantage of these clinics because they are at our monthly meeting palace. If you wait you may have to travel to another location which may not be near your area. You must get registered before 12/31/2013. Follow the instructions that were sent out to make it easy on your self. Remember if you have any trouble contact 'Carlos Hernandez' at cal South he can walk you thru the process or find your pass words to log in on the web site.

It has come to LBSRA attention that we have some uniforms that are not up to standards of LBSRA appearance out on the fields. We have Jerseys that are faded; we have Jerseys that are way off the same colors as your fellow referees. We have faded shorts that need to be discarded and new ones bought. We have referees wearing different sox while doing games. You are a team of referees and it shows when you do not look the same.

We have a number of referees wearing caps which is not part of the uniform. Larry Yee has expressed the use of caps and you need to follow these concerns that he has made.

Make sure you know the different rules that the leagues have. CSL does not have the same as SCDSL. Tournaments vary by what the tournaments have on there web sites. That's why for every event that you are refereeing, look up the rules read them and take them with you. Some of you rely on you cell phones. I had one case at SCDSL where the referee said he had a game and when went to show me on his cell phone it was dead. So you can't always rely on it, but it is a good tool to have.

The last couple of months we have some tournaments coming up so make your self available to the assignors. Good ways of making some extra money for Christmas Holidays.
