FROM LBSRA PRESIDENT

We have sent out emails regarding Re-Cert clinic. Take advantage of these clinics because they are at our monthly meeting palace. If you wait you may have to travel to another location which may not be near your area. You must get registered before 12/31/2013. Follow the instructions that were sent out to make it easy on your self. Remember if you have any trouble contact 'Carlos Hernandez' at cal South he can walk you thru the process or find your pass words to log in on the web site.

Only three clinics dates left. November 20th, December 3rd and December 18th after that you are on your own to get the certification done. You may have to travel to other associations to become certified by December 31st.

We have a couple of tournaments coming up end of November and the middle of December. Make sure you let the assignors know your availability for those times. Follow instructions on email for registering.
